

Conditionals

(revision + exc)

Task: Correct the sentences:

1. If you didn't call me last night, I don't know if I would cope with that problem!
2. You wouldn't be promoted if they didn't believe in you.
3. I wouldn't have met Mark if I didn't continue with my studies.
4. Have I wanted to meet you again, I should have been working hard enough.
5. If I hadn't met you, I wouldn't have been that happy now.

Task: Write the hypothetical situations:

1. I wanted to continue my studies. I applied for the position again.
2. I passed the driving test successfully. I'm having a driving licence now.
3. My father called me. We arranged to meet.
4. I haven't been to Germany before. I'm so excited that we are flying tomorrow!
5. She married at 18. She has 3 children already and she's just turned 25.